A close-up, low-angle shot of a person's legs in blue denim jeans and a brown, textured woven slipper. The person is walking on a narrow wooden plank bridge that spans across a body of water. The background is a soft-focus green landscape with trees and a building, suggesting a park or a scenic outdoor area. The lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the texture of the jeans and the slipper.

Easy breezy wear

Introducing our lightweight slipper collection. Crafted from thermoregulating wool and bamboo with soft leather sole. These light and airy slippers are around half the thickness of our warmer collection. They're perfect for protecting feet during milder months.

Corporation

From Thread to Toe

Contrary to on-trend fast fashion where brands are disconnected from manufacturing, our entire design and production process is managed from our Cambodia-based workshop. Letting us stay connected every step of the way.

Sustainability

We all have a footprint. As a business we strive to minimise the impact we have on this planet, by using biodegradable materials for our products. And the little carbon we create we offset with carbon credits supporting the protection of rainforest in Cambodia.

Made ethically

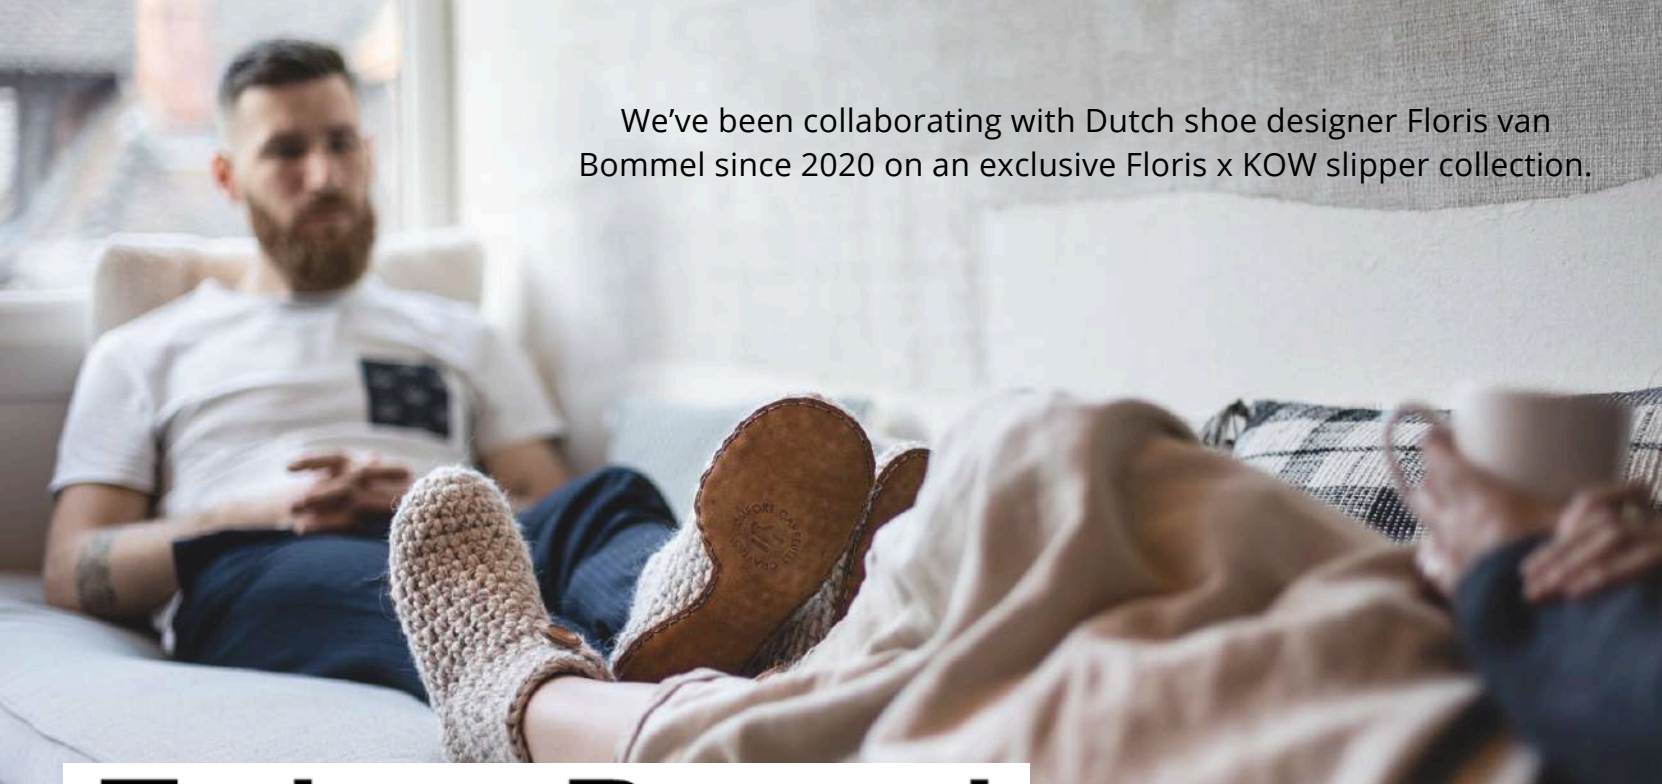

Our workshop provides a safe and healthy work space for our team, a place where our products are created with care and commitment to the sound of friendly chatter and laughter.

Manufacturing with purpose

Our footwear is a labour of love, not only in its design but in its creation. We take pride in doing things right, this means producing our footwear responsibly, the only way to do things in our book.

We've been collaborating with Dutch shoe designer Floris van Bommel since 2020 on an exclusive Floris x KOW slipper collection.

the Wow difference

one pair covers two regular sizes = fewer SKUs & less returns

seasonless collection & colourway consistency = stock longevity & less discounting ethical, sustainable & barefoot by design = diversity in target audience crafted in our own workshop = manufacturing transparency

we're proud to be B Corp Certified
